Correspondence ending with Letter No 272 dated 28th November 1908, from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur District, reporting that the people of Kenchena-halli in the Kunigal Taluk have at their own cost repaired the temple of Anjaneyaswami in their village and arrangedfor regular Puja and recommending that the Inam land of the temple which has been resumed may be restored.

----------O----------

Order thereon No.

---------O----------

The Deputy Commissioner reports that the dry land bearing Survey No. 30 of Kenchenahalli and measuring 4 acres and 17 guntas and assessed at Rs3-8-0 was originally the inam land attached to the Aniyeyaswami temple of Kenchenahalli; that the Inam was resumed as the Jodi was not paid in 1880-81 and the land was brought under waste, that one Nanjundiah obtained the land on darkhast in 1894-95 and relinquished it in 1898-99 and that since then the land is fallow. He also adds that the villagers have at a cost of Rs 200/- (~~exclusive of the requisite quantity of burnt bricks~~) renovated the temple and appointed a pujari for
